

Five things you need to know about your health insurance

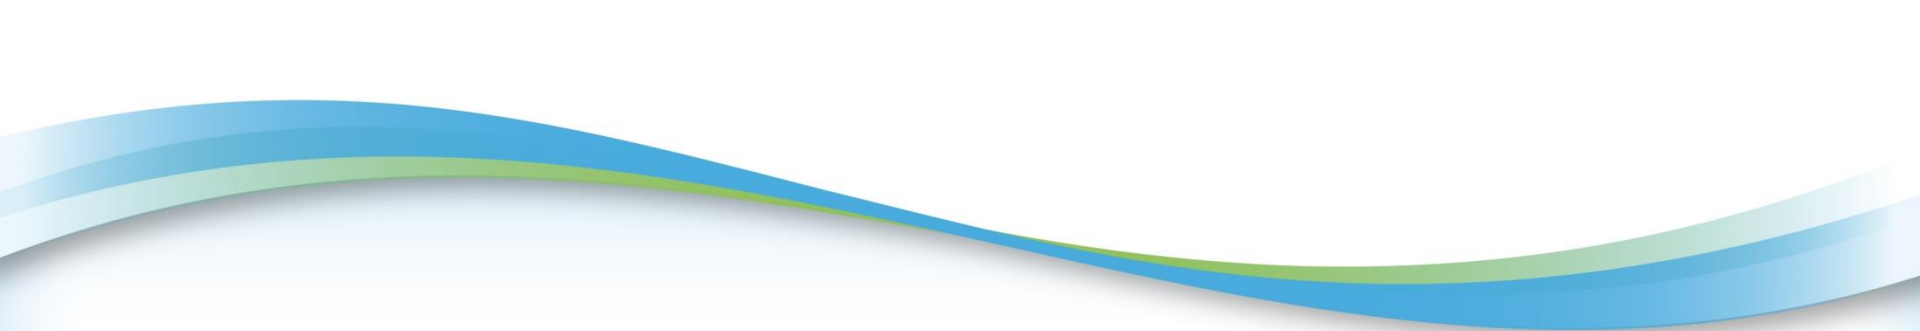

Michelle Greer RN

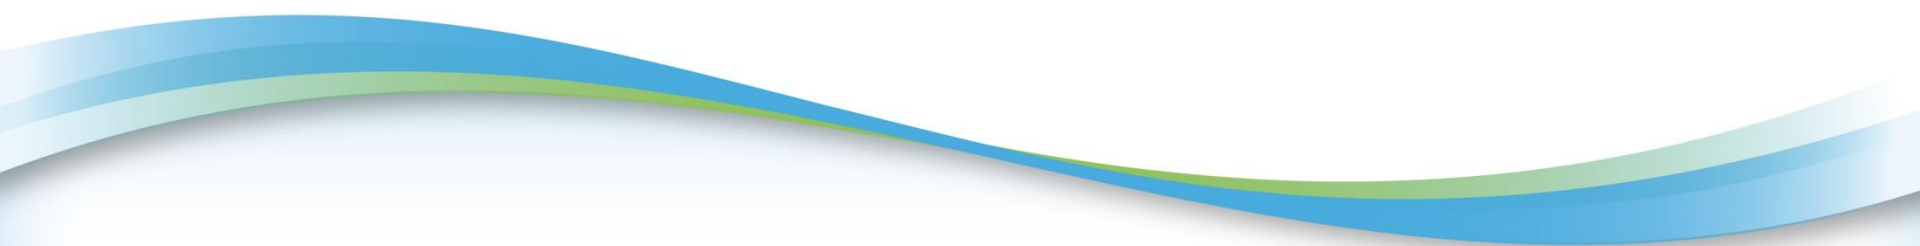

1. Your coverage in general

2. Coverage for any procedures or therapies prior to implementation

3. What your provider will do for you should services or therapies be denied

4. You can search your health plan's website for policies on covering services and therapies to better understand their criteria and how you meet it.

5. You can request a case manager

Questions?