

Things to Do

Don't want to leave the hotel? No worries the Caribe has plenty to offer

Things to do at the Caribe

Eat and Drink at the Caribe

Theme Parks - In Orlando, visitors both young and young at heart can immerse themselves in open-air adventures at the world's top theme parks!

Walt Disney World Resort

Universal Orlando Resort

SeaWorld Orlando

Legoland Florida Resort

Orlando attractions – Ever fly ... indoors? Move through a school of exotic fish ... without getting wet? Soar on a zip line ... over live alligators? You can in Orlando, where more than 100 amazing, standalone attractions beyond our theme parks and water parks are unbelievably real.

Eat and Drink in Orlando - Between celebrity chef-driven restaurants and local James Beard honorees, family-friendly feasts, sleek lounges, dazzling nightclubs, sports-focused pubs, gourmet food trucks, breweries, wineries, and more, you will never run out of amazing things to eat and drink in Orlando — no matter your budget or preferences.

Whether you're hungry, thirsty or a little bit of both, here's your guide to the epicurean wonders awaiting you during your next getaway to Orlando, including options close to the theme parks and other foodie hotspots all over town!

Shopping in Orlando - Orlando is a shopper's paradise like no other. The sort of place where the world's most coveted brands compete for your attention in wondrous settings that are more theme park than retail center. A destination where browsing the latest fashions can lead to unexpected discoveries, from wands that unlock surprising secrets to artifacts of a fabled galaxy far, far away — and all within a 15-mile radius of our attractions.

Free things to do in Orlando - Orlando isn't just the most magical tourism destination in the United States. Thanks to a wealth of unique experiences that don't cost a penny and other ways to save, we've also ranked as a No. 1 most affordable vacation destination among top U.S. cities according to USA Today. Here's your guide to free activities throughout the area for kids and adults alike!